Holiday Art & Improv -

Abominable Fun For Your Little Yetis

Sunday, 12/16

12:00 - 3:00pm

Instructors:

Kim Duncan & Kirsten Rachford

This class begins with a fun art project where students will explore their inner yetis by creating their own abominable sculpture! Once their imaginations have been unleashed, their projects will become a part of the theatre games and improv exercises used to create Holiday stories and scenes that open them up to trusting their instincts. These exercises give students the confidence to throw out new ideas and be themselves. Our policy is: No Idea is a Bad Idea!!!

Parents, drop your beasties while you tackle your holiday shopping!

For Ages 7 - 12.
